

Unserviceable and Useless Royal Navy Provisions
29 July 1643

"A List of sundry unserviceable and useless Provisions, now remaining in His Majesty's Stores, at Chatham, Deptford, Woolw'ch and Portsmouth, fir to be sold by the Candle, for the Use and Service of His Majesty and the Parliament."

At Chatham

"Bent and unserviceable Anchors, which have been refused at the Ships, at Sixteen Hundred Weight one with another" 10

Long Boats 10

Pinnaces 3

Skiffs 3

"Grapnells of Two Hundred Weight each, made formerly for a Shew above Bridge" 18

Bolt-ropes 12 Tons

Old Leather Buckets 10 Dozen

Old Colours. poiz 5 Cwt per Eft

Old Hammocks 450

Old Waist Cloths 200 Yards

Old Compasses and Boxes 15 Dozen

Old Barrecoes 30

Old Pieces of Canvas, poiz 3 Cwt

Old Rigging-ropes, per Estimation 30 Tons

Old Junk, per Estimation 25 Tons

"Mooring-cales, distruffed by the Master Attendants, per Estimation" 15 Tons

New, but unuseful Oars 65 Dozen

Unuseful Galley-oars 8

Ground Tows and Shakings 4 Tons

At Portsmouth

Shakings, per Estimation 4 Tons

Bolt-ropes, per Estimation 10 Cwt

Old decayed Hawsers, per Estimation 2 Tons

Old decayed Brass Bell, per Estimation 56lb

Old Iron, per Estimation 2 Cwt

"Copper Kettles, unuseful for Sea and of no Ufe in Store" 4 - 2 serviceable, 1 decayed

"The May Flower Prize, with her Rigging-geers and Firniture"

At Deptford

"The Revenge, with her Rigging and Firniture"

Old Coradge in several Rooms, per Estimation 14 Tons

Great Lighters sent from Chatham 4

Pinnace 1

Skiffs 2

Journals of the House of Lords VI, 158