

The Royalist Army at the Battle of Montgomery
18 September 1644

Commander: John, Baron Byron of Rochdale
Major-General of Foot: Sir Michael Earnley

Horse:

The Lord Byron's Regiment of Horse
The Lord Molyneux's Regiment of Horse
Colonel Sir William Vaughan's Regiment of Horse
Colonel Marcus Trevor's Regiment of Horse
Colonel Thomas Tyldesley's Regiment of Horse

Foot:

The Prince of Wales' Regiment of Foot commanded by Major General Sir Michael Woodhouse
Sir Michael Earnley's Regiment of Foot
Colonel Fulk Hunks' Regiment of Foot
Colonel Robert Broughton's Regiment of Foot
Colonel Sir Thomas Tyldesley's Regiment of Foot
Colonel Robert Ellis' Regiment of Foot
Colonel Henry Warren's Regiment of Foot
Colonel The Lord Byron's's Regiment of Foot

Note: This list should not be considered exhaustive, neither should it be taken that all of these regiments were present in their entirety.

Contemporary Accounts, particularly those of three Parliamentary Commanders made to the House of Lords on 23rd September.