

Abstract Return of the Union Forces in the Department of the Cumberland
20 January 1863

Commanding Officer: Major General W.S. Roscrans
HQ: Murfreesborough, Tennessee
Staff: (27/0)
Provost Guard:
10th Ohio Infantry Regiment (21/421)
20th Army Corps: Major General McCook
Staff
1st Division (Davis) (196/3,531)
2nd Division (Johnson) (254/4,817)
3rd Division (Sheridan) (196/4,069)
14th Army Corps: Major General Thomas
Staff (17/0)
18th Michigan (pro gds) (18/302)
1st Division (Rosseau) (292/5,254)
2nd Division (Negley) (251/4,964)
3rd Division (Fry) (330/6,215)
4th Division (Mitchell) (220/4,295)
5th Division (Reynolds) (286/4,839)
21st Army Corps: Major General Crittenden
Staff (9/0)
1st Division (Wood) (286/4,788)
2nd Division (Palmer) (253/4,255)
3rd Division (Van Cleve) (173/3,297)
Post of Nashville: Brigadier General Mitchell
Infantry (71/1,127)
Cavalry (9/165)
Artillery (18/437)
Post of Gallatin: Brigadier General Paine
Staff (6/0)
Infantry (151/2,568)
Artillery (2/73)
Post of Clarksville: Colonel S.D. Bruce
Infantry (71/1,275)
Cavalry (32/582)
Artillery (2/78)
Post of Bowling Green: Brigadier General Manson
Staff (7/0)
Infantry (96/1,806)
Cavalry (7/166)
Artillery (1/27)
Cavalry Division (Stanley) (216/4,079)
Chicago Board of Trade Battery (4/105)
Pioneer Brigade (Cpt. Morton) (59/1,343)
Signal Corps (Cpt. Merrill) (32/64)
Convalescents (Cahill) (48/3,806)
Convalescents (Raymond) (9/1,172)
Convalescents (Ferguson) (15/603)

U.S. War Department, The War of the Succession, A Compilation of Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies, Government

Printing Office; Washington D.C. 1882