Union Forces Department of the East 31 May 1863

- Fort Hamilton (New York): Bvt. Brig. Gen. H. Brown (13/359) 5th U.S. Artillery, HQ & Batteries B & E 12th U.S. Artillery, HQ & Companies F & H
- Fort Schulyer (New York): Cpt. S.R.Cowles (8/235)
  D/10th New York Heavy Artillery
  20th New York Battery
  28th New York Battery
- Fort at Sandy Hook (New York): Cpt. A. Cleghorn (4/107) E/10th New York Heavy Artillery
- Fort Ontario (New York): Lt. A.C.Cook (1/21) 16th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits
- Fort Independence (Massachusetts): Maj. J.W.Gordon (9/190)
  Massachusetts Heavy Artillery (1 co)
  llth U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits
- Fort Warren (Massachusetts): Col. J. Dimick (19/516) Massachusetts Heavy Artillery (3 cos) 1st U.S. Artillery, HQ & Battery A
- Fort Preble (Maine): Lt. Col. J.D. Greene (5/84) 17th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits
- Fort Trumbull (Connecticut): Col. W. Gates (2/118) 14th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits
- Fort Adams (Rhode Island): Col. O.L.Shepherd (5/80) 15th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits
- Portland (Maine): Col. E.C.Mason (6/30)
  Det/7th Maine Infantry Regiment
- Portsmouth Grove (Rhode Island): Cpt. Blanding (1/66) Rhode Island Hospital Guards
- U.S. War Department, The War of the Succession, A Compilation of Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies, Government Printing Office; Washington D.C. 1882