

Union Forces
Department of the East
31 May 1863

Fort Hamilton (New York): Bvt. Brig. Gen. H. Brown (13/359)
5th U.S. Artillery, HQ & Batteries B & E
12th U.S. Artillery, HQ & Companies F & H

Fort Schulyer (New York): Cpt. S.R.Cowles (8/235)
D/10th New York Heavy Artillery
20th New York Battery
28th New York Battery

Fort at Sandy Hook (New York): Cpt. A. Cleghorn (4/107)
E/10th New York Heavy Artillery

Fort Ontario (New York): Lt. A.C.Cook (1/21)
16th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits

Fort Independence (Massachusetts): Maj. J.W.Gordon (9/190)
Massachusetts Heavy Artillery (1 co)
11th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits

Fort Warren (Massachusetts): Col. J. Dimick (19/516)
Massachusetts Heavy Artillery (3 cos)
1st U.S. Artillery, HQ & Battery A

Fort Preble (Maine): Lt. Col. J.D. Greene (5/84)
17th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits

Fort Trumbull (Connecticut): Col. W. Gates (2/118)
14th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits

Fort Adams (Rhode Island): Col. O.L.Shepherd (5/80)
15th U.S. Artillery, HQ & recruits

Portland (Maine): Col. E.C.Mason (6/30)
Det/7th Maine Infantry Regiment

Portsmouth Grove (Rhode Island): Cpt. Blanding (1/66)
Rhode Island Hospital Guards

Camp Washington, New York:
12th New York Cavalry Regiment
(dropped from tri-monthly reports, but still under state control)

U.S. War Department, The War of the Succession, A Compilation of Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies, Government
Printing Office; Washington D.C. 1882