

Abstract Return
 Union Forces
 Department of the Gulf
 April 1864

Commanding Officer: Major General N.P.Banks

|  |                |
|--|----------------|
| Headquarters                               | (36/45)        |
| XIII Army Corps (McClernand)               |                |
| Headquarters                               | (15/19)        |
| 1st Division & attached troops (Warren)    | (238/4,763)    |
| 2nd Division & attached troops (Herron)    | (135/2,873)    |
| 3rd Division (Cameron)                     | (104/2,045)    |
| 4th Division (Landram)                     | (75/1,421)     |
| Artillery Brig (Schwarz)                   | (9/352)        |
| XIX Army Corps (Franklin)                  |                |
| Headquarters                               | (8/0)          |
| 1st Division (Emory)                       | (235/5,272)    |
| 2nd Division (Grover)                      | (453/9,221)    |
| Artillery Reserve (Closson)                | (7/248)        |
| Engineer Brigade                           | (58/1,003)     |
| Corps d'Afrique (detachment)               | (88/1,447)     |
| Army of Tennessee (detachment)             | (453/9,221)    |
| Cavalry Division (Arnold)                  | (253/5,003)    |
| Defenses of New Orleans (Reynolds)         |                |
| New Orleans & vicinity                     | (380/9,334)    |
| Ship Island, Mississippi                   | (19/309)       |
| District of Baton Rouge (Cooke)            | (234/5,317)    |
| District of La Fourche (Day)               | (68/1,579)     |
| Port Hudson, Louisiana (Ullmann)           |                |
| Corps d'Afrique                            | (190/2,685)    |
| 2nd Brigade, Cavalry Division (Fonda)      | (18/424)       |
| District of Key West & Tortugas (Woodbury) | (39/820)       |
| District of West Florida (Asboth)          | (79/1,729)     |
| Grand Total                                | (2,917/60,161) |

Printing Office; Washington D.C. 1882