

The Royalist Army
Arms Purchased in Holland
12 June 1642

" 4 Pieces of Battery, of Eighteen Pounds Bullett.
1 Piece, carrying Twelve Pounds Bullet.
1 Piece, carrying Eight Pounds Bullet.
2 Culverings, carrying Eight Pounds Bullet.
6 Field Pieces, carrying Six Pounds Bullet.
2 Mortar Pieces, for Granadoes.

--
16

--
100 Barrels of Powder.
2000 Pair of Piftols
1000 Carbines
3000 Saddles
Bullets
Saddles
Spunges
Carriages
Harnefs for Horfes

The Mortar Pieces are One Foot and a Half Diameter at the Mouth (Metal and all).

Shooting Granadoes of Eleven or Twelve Inches."

"I did see Mr. Webfter meafuring or lokking upon a Mortice to shoot Fire-balls of the Widenefs or Breadth of the inclofed Thread, weighing Eight and Forty Hundred Pounds."

Parliamentary Intelligence Report: Lords" Journals V 126