

Royalist Lords who "have Absented Themselves from Parliament"
22 December 1642

Edward Baron Littleton, The Lord Keeper
James Stuart, 1st Duke of Richmond
William Seymour, 1st Marquis of Hertford
James Hamilton, 1st Marquis Hamilton
Henry Clifford, 5th Earl of Cumberland
Henry Bouchier, 5th Earl of Bath
Thomas Wriothesley, 4th Earl of Southampton
Edward Sackville, 4th Earl of Dorset
William Cecil, 2nd Earl of Salisbury
Spencer Compton, 2nd Earl of Northampton
William Cavendish, 3rd Earl of Devonshire
James Hay, 2nd Earl of Carlisle
John Holles, 2nd Earl of Clare
Mildmay Fane, 2nd Earl of Westmorland
Henry Carey, 2nd Earl of Monmouth
Robert Bertie, 1st Earl of Lindsey
William Cavendish, 1st Earl of Newcastle
Henry Carey, 1st Earl of Dover
Robert Dormer, 1st Earl of Carnarvon
Mountjoy Blount, 1st Earl of Newport
John Tufton, 2nd Earl of Thanet
Henry Howard, Baron Mowbray
James Stanley, 7th Earl of Derby*
Montague Bertie, Baron Willoughby d'Eresby
Charles Longeville, Baron Grey (styled Lord Longueville)
Robert, Baron Rich
Charles Howard, Viscount Andover
Sir Thomas Belasyse, Baron Fauconberg of Yarm
John, 2nd Baron Lovelace
John, 5th Baron Paulett of Hinton St. George
Henry Pierrepont, Viscount Newark
Thomas, 2nd Baron Coventry of Aylesborough
Thomas, 2nd Baron Savile
Sir Francis Leigh, Baron Dunsmore of Dunsmore
Francis, Baron Seymour of Trowbridge
Arthur, Baron Capel of Hadham

* Derby is given as "Lord Strange" in the original list, suggesting that it was drawn up before he succeeded to his father's title of Earl of Derby in September 1642

The original list gives only the short title, all other details have been added from other sources.

A Catalogue of the Names etc...., London 1642. British Library Thomason Tracts E 83 (9)