

French Munitions Relief Column
Destined for Lille
28 September 1708

Commanding Officer: Lieutenant General the Chevalier de Luxembourg
Second in Command: Colonel Baron Sandreski

Independent Reinforcement Brigade (1,600 men)

Allemaigne Cavalry Squadron
Anglais Cavalry Squadron
Pelabre Cavalry Squadron
Parapaille Cavalry Squadron
Sauve-gardes Cavalry Squadron
de la Reine Cavalry Squadron
Bourgogne Cavalry Squadron
St. Aignon Cavalry Squadron
La Bertoche Cavalry Squadron
Macteville Cavalry Squadron
Fontaine Cavalry Squadron
Forsat Cavalry Squadron
Tourot Cavalry Squadron

The Forsat and Tourot squadrons literally blew up upon entering the fortress.
The remaining squadrons were converted to foot troops and distributed to through out the garrison.