Kurram Valley Field Force 18th November 1878

Commanding: Lieutenant-General Sir F S Roberts V.C. Aide-de-Camp: Captain G T Pretyman Orderly Officers: Lt-Colonel G Villiers Lt N F Chamberlain Assistant Adjutant-General: Major Galbraith Assistant Quartermaster-General: Major H Collett Deputy Assistant Quartermaster-Generals: Captain R G Kennedy Captain F S Carr Principal Medical Officer: Deputy Surgeon-General F F Allen Chief Commissariat Officer: Captain A R Badcock Superintendent of Surveys: Captain R Woodthorpe Superintendent of Transport: Major D Moriarty Assistant Superintendents of Transport: Captain H Goad Lt A Maisev Chaplain: Reverend J W Adams Engineers: Commanding: Lt-Colonel A Perkins Assistant Field Engineers: Lt F T N Spratt Lt S Grant Superintendent Field Telegraphs: Captain A S Wynne 7th Company Bengal Sappers & Miners Engineer Field Park Artillery: Commanding: Lt-Colonel A H Lindsay Adjutant: Lt E G Osborne In Charge of Ordnance Field Park: Captain J A S Colquhoun F Battery, A Brigade R.H.A. G Battery, 3rd Brigade R.A. (half) No. 1 Mountain Battery, Punjab Frontier Force Ordnance Field Park Cavalry: Commanding: Colonel H Gough, V.C., C.B. 10th Hussars (1 squadron) 12th Bengal Cavalry 1st Infantry Brigade: Brigadier-General A H Cobbe Brigade Major: Captain A Scott, V.C. 2/8th Foot 29th Punjab Infantry 5th Punjab Infantry, Punjab Frontier Force 2nd Infantry Brigade: Brigadier-General J B Thelwall, C.B. Brigade Major: Captain G de C Morton 72nd Highlanders (wing) 2nd Punjab Infantry, Punjab Frontier Force 5th Gurkhas, Punjab Frontier Force 23rd Pioneers (musbi Sikhs)

Garrison of Thal: Major J C Stewart No. 2 Mountain Battery, Punjab Frontier Force 15th Punjab Cavalry (wing), Punjab Frontier Force 21st Punjab Infantry

On Line of Communication between Thal & Kohat: 5th Punjab Cavalry (wing), Punjab Frontier Force

Total Strength: 150 Officers, 5,500 men, 950 Horse, 17 Guns

Hanna, H. B., The Second Afghan War, 1878-79-80, 1899-1910, Volume 1

Copyright GFN 1994.