

British Forces
Relief of Eshowe
18 March 1879

British Column: Major General Lord Chelmsford

1st Brigade: Lt. Colonel F. Law

91st Highland Regiment of Foot - Major Bruce
3rd "Buffs" Regiment of Foot (2 companies)
99th Regiment of Foot (5 companies)
Naval Brigade - HMS Shah (350 sailors)
2-9pdr field guns
2 24pdr rocket tubes
1 Gatling gun
4th Battalion, Natal Native Contingent (800 men)
- Cpt. Barton

2nd Brigade: Lt. Colonel Pemberton

57th Regiment of Foot - Lt. Col. Clarke
60th Rifles (6 companies) - Lt. Col. Northey
Naval Brigade (290 sailors & marines)
5th Battalion, Natal Native Contingent
2 24pdr Rocket Tubes
2 Gatling Gun

Divisional Troops: Major P. Barrow

Native Foot Scouts
Mounted Infantry & Volunteers (150 men)
Mounted Kaffirs (130 men)

Column total strength - 5,670 total, including 3,390 Europeans.

Clammer, D., The Zulu War, David & Charles Military Book, 1973.