

British Forces Enroute to Helmand
and
The Troops left at Kandahar
4 July 1880

Commanding: Brigadier-General G.R.S.Burrows
Deputy Assistant Commissary-General: Lt. G.C. Dobbs
Royal Engineers: Major E.P.Leach, V.C.

Cavalry Brigade: Brigadier-General T.Nuttal
Brigade Major: Major G.C.Hogg
E Battery, B Brigade R.H.A., Major G.F.Blackwood
3rd Sind Horse, Colonel J.H.P.Malcolmson
3rd Bombay Light Cavalry, Major A.P.Currie

Infantry Brigade:
66th Foot (6 companies), Colonel J.Galbraith
1st Grenadiers (Bombay Infantry), Lt-Colonel H.S.Andrews
30th Bombay Infantry (Jacob's Rifles),
Colonel W G Mainwaring
2nd Company Bombay Sappers & Miners (half), Lt. T.R.Henn

Strength: 2,453 with 6 guns

Left at Kandahar:
C Battery, 2nd Brigade R.A. (4 guns)
4 Heavy Guns
2 Mortars
Poona Horse (1 squadron)
3rd Bombay Cavalry (detail)
3rd Sind Horse (detail)
7th Fusiliers (550)
19th Bombay Infantry (wing - 300)

Hanna, H. B., The Second Afghan War, 1878-79-80, 1899-1910,
Volume 3