11th SS Freiwilligen Panzer Grenadier Division "Nordland": Formed in July 1943. It began as the SS Panzer Grenadier Division (German). It was formed from the SS Freiwilligen legion Norwegen and the Danish Freikorps. The 11th SS Panzer Regiment was formed with two battalions (6 cos, a heavy co and a pioneer co, later 8 cos and a pioneer co). The organization was not completed and only a single battalion was formed. This panzer battalion was given the name "Hermann von Salza" in 1944. The division had:

1/,2/,3/SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment "Norge"
 1/,2/,3/SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment "Danmark"
 11th SS Panzer Battalion (4 cos)
 11th SS Reconnaissance Battalion (5 cos)
     1/,2/,4/11th SS Artillery Regiment (3rd bn never formed,
     4th Bn was heavy)
 1/,2/11th SS Motorcycle Regiment (total 6 cos) (in Aug 1943

 12th SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
 12th SS Armored Signal Battalion (2 cos)
 12th SS Division (Einheiten) Service Units

The sturmgeschütz battalion appears to have finished in March 1944 and indications are that the 1st SS Panzer Jäger Battalion, from the SS Leibstandarte Adolph Hitler Division, but its number was not change. In addition a Werfer Battalion was formed. After the battle of Normandy, the division was reorganized on 10/6/44. It passed into American captivity near Linz in 1945.

13th Waffen SS Mountain Division "Handschar" (1st Croatian): Formed on 3/1/43 from the 2/10/43rd Croatian SS Freiwilligen Division from Croatian volunteers (not including Muslims) from Bosnia. On 4/30/43 the division was reorganized as a mountain division. On 7/2/43 it was renamed the Croatian SS Freiwilligen Mountain Division. The division consisted of:

- 1/,2/,3/,4/1st Croatian SS Freiwilligen Mountain Jäger Regt
- 1/,2/,3/,4/2nd Croatian SS Freiwilligen Mountain Jäger Regt
- Croatian SS Cavalry Battalion (2 sqns, no staff)
- Croatian SS Reconnaissance Battalion (3 bicycle sqns & 1 heavy squadron)

  - (1st Bn: 1-2nd btrys, 2nd Bn: 3-4th btrys, 3rd Bn: 5-6th btrys, 4th (Heavy motorized) Bn: 7-9th btrys)
- Croatian SS Flak Battalion (4 btrys)
- Croatian SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
- Croatian SS Signals Battalion (2 cos)
- SS Support Troops

On 10/22/43 the division was renamed the 13th SS Freiwilligen Bosnisch-Herzegowinisch Gebirgs Division (1st Croatian). The two infantry regiments were renamed:

- 27th SS Freiwilligen Mountain Jäger Regiment (1st Croatian)
- 28th SS Freiwilligen Mountain Jäger Regiment (2nd Croatian)

In June 1943 it was renamed the 13. Waffen-Gebirgs-Division der SS "Handschar" (13th Waffen SS Mountain Division "Handschar"). The order of 9/26/44 reduced the regiment to the two infantry regiments, each with two battalions, a pioneer company, a signals company and a feldersatz battalion. The reconnaissance battalion, the panzerjäger battalion, the mountain artillery regiment and the mountain pioneer battalion were detached to the SS Reichsführer Division and renumbered with the number 509th. It appears that the flak battalion had already been transferred in June 1944. In 1945 the division was taken prisoner by the English near Villach.

14th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (1st Galician): Formed in September 1943 as the 14th Galizische SS Freiwilligen Division. It was formed from ethnic Germans and Ukrainians and consisted of:

- 1/,2/,3/SS 1st Freiwilligen Regiment (Galizische)

SS Pioneer Battalion (Galizische) (3 cos)
SS Signals Battalion (Galizische) (2 cos)
SS 14th Division Supply Troops (Galizische)

The three 3rd Battalions were detached shortly later and reorganized into the 14th SS Fusilier Battalion (4 cos) and the 14th SS Feldersatz Battalion (5 cos). On 10/22/43 the division was renamed the 14th Galizische SS Freiwilligen Infantry Division and the infantry regiments were renamed and renumbered the 29th, 30th and 31st SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiments. Each had only two battalions. The artillery regiments and other units were numbered the "14th".

From the three infantry regiments volunteers were drawn to form the 4-7th Galizische SS Freiwilligen Regiments (Polish). The 6th and 7th Regiments were disbanded by 1/31/44 and the 4th and 5th Regiments were disbanded on 6/9/44. Their manpower was returned to the parent division.

In August 1944 the division became the 14th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (1st Galizisch) and the infantry regiments became the 29th-31st Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiments. The order of 6/1/44 directed the formation of 3rd Battalions in the grenadier regiments. The bicycle battalion appears to have been disbanded in June 1944. On 8/7/44 the division had:

1/,2/,3/29th Waffen Grenadier Regiment (1st Gal.)
1/,2/,3/30th Waffen Grenadier Regiment (2nd Gal.)

SS 14th Division Supply Troops (Galizische)

15th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (1st Lettish): Formed in September 1943 as the Lettisch -SS-Freiwilligen Division from the Lettish SS Freiwilligen legion. On 10 February 1943 the division detached the 4th and 5th Regiments to the Lettish SS Freiwilligen Brigade. The division had:

1/,2/,3/1st SS Freiwilligen Regiment (Lettish Legion)
1/,2/,3/2nd SS Freiwilligen Regiment (Lettish Legion)
1/,2/,3/3rd SS Freiwilligen Regiment (Lettish Legion)
SS Bicycle Battalion (Lettish Legion) (2 sqns)
SS Panzerjäger Battalion (Lettish Legion) (3 cos)
1/,2/,3/,4/SS Artillery Regiment (Lettish Legion)
SS Pioneer Battalion (Lettish Legion) (3 cos)
SS Signals Battalion (Lettish Legion) (2 cos)
SS Support Troops (Lettish Legion)

On 10/22/43 renumbered the regiments and renamed the division the 15th Lettish SS Freiwilligen Division; The regiments were renumbered as follows:

32nd SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (1st Lettish)
33rd SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (2nd Lettish)
34th SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (3rd Lettish)
15th SS Freiwilligen Artillery regiment (1st Lettish)

The other units were numbered "15th". The division was reorganized into an infantry division, type 44, and the bicycle battalion became the 15th SS Fusilier Battaion with four companies. The three grenadier regiments retained their third battalions. In June 1944 the division was renamed the 15th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (1st Lettish) 1) and the Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiments became Waffen Greandier Regimentns. On 7/16/44 the Division was destroyed and the survivors were absorged into the 19th (2nd Lettish) Division. In August the rest of the division was taken to west Prussia, with the exception of the artillery regiment which remained in combat.

The division was reorganized and in December three "Bau" Regiments were formed:

1/,2/,3/1st Bau-Regiment (15th SS Division)
1/,2/,3/2nd Bau-Regiment (15th SS Division)
1/,2/,3/3rd Bau-Regiment (15th SS Division)

The division was reorganized by the order of 9/8/44 in West Prussia and raised to:

1/,2/,3/32nd Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (3rd Lettish)
1/,2/,3/33rd Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (4th Lettish)
1/,2/,3/34th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (5th Lettish)
1/,2/,3/,15th Waffen SS Artillery Regiment (2nd Lettish Artillery Regiment)
Fusilier Battalion/15th Waffen SS Grenadier Division

After being destroyed in Pommerania, the division was reformed in Neubrandenburg, but later, by Neuruppin, it was taken into Russian captivity.

16th Panzer Grenadier Division "Reichsführer SS": In February 1943 the Escort Battalion Reichsführer SS was formed and on 10/3/43 it became the SS Sturmbrigade Reichsführer SS. The two panzer grenadier Regiments were, in Novemer, numbered 33rd and 34th. On 11/12/43 they were renumbered 35th and 36th. The division had:

1/,2/,3/35th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment
1/,2/,3/36th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment
16th SS Panzer Battalion (4 cos)
16th SS Panzer Reconnaissance Battalion (5 cos)
1/,2/,3/16th SS Artillery Regiment
16th SS Sturmgeschütz Battalion (3 btrys)
16th SS Flak Battalion (4 btrys)
16th SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
16th SS Signals Battalion (2 cos)
16th SS Support Troops

In June 1944 the 2/35th Panzer Grenadier Regiment and the Reichsführer SS Escort Battalion exchanged places. In December 1944 the artillery regiment formed a new 3rd Battalion and the old 3rd Battalion was redesignated as the 4th Battalion. In February 1945 the sturmgeschütz battalion and the panzerjäger battalion were transferred to the newly forming 32nd SS Division. In April 1945 they were renamed the 32nd Panzerjäger Battalion.

17th SS Panzer Grenadier Division "Götz von Berlichingen": Formed on 11/15/43 with detachments from the 10th SS Panzer Division. The Division had:

- 1/,2/,3/37th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment
- 1/,2/,3/38th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment
- 17th SS Panzer Battalion (4 cos)
- 17th SS Panzer Reconnaissance Battalion (5 cos)

- Pioneer Company

18th SS Freiwilligen Panzer Grenadier Division "Horst Wessel": Formed on 1/25/44 from the 1st SS Motorized Brigade. It had:

- 1/,2/,3/39th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment (from 39th SS Grenadier Regt)
- 1/,2/,3/40th SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment (from 40th SS Grenadier Regt)
- SS 18th Panzer Battalion (newly formed) (4 cos)
- 1/,2/,3/18th SS Artillery Regiment (newly formed)
- 18th SS Reconnaissance Battalion (5 cos)
- 18th SS Flak Battalion (1-37mm & 3-88mm btrys)
- 18th SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
- 18th SS Signals Battalion (2 cos)
- 18th SS Division (Einheiten) Units

The division was renamed the 18th SS Freiwilligen Panzer Grenadier Division "Horst Wessel" prior to October 1944. In February 1945 the division formed the panzerjäger battalion, which it had lacked prior to that date.

19th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (2nd Lettish): formed on 1/7/44 from the 2nd Lettish SS Freiwilligen Brigade and named the 19th Let-

tish SS Freiwilligen Division. It had:

- 1/,2/42nd SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (4th Lettish)
- 1/,2/43rd SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (5th Lettish)
- 1/,2/44th SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiment (6th Lettish)

- 19th SS Freiwilliger Pioneer Battaillon (3 cos)
- 19th SS Signals Battaillon (2 cos)
- 19th SS Division (Einheiten) Support Units

The 52nd SS Flak Battaion was not incorporated into the division and retained its number until September 1944. The formation of a 3rd Battaillon in the three grenadier regiments was completed from the 1st & 2nd SS Ausbildung Regiments of the 2nd Lettish SS Freiwilligen Brigade, but they were later disbanded. In June the division was renamed the 19th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (2nd Lettish). The 42nd, 43rd and 44th Freiwilligen Grenadier Regiments became Waffen SS Grenadier Regiments. When the 15th Waffen SS Grenadier Division (1st Lettish) was destroyed in July 1944 its survivors were incorporated into the 19th Waffen SS Grenadier Division. The 42nd and 43rd Regiments were then renamed "1st Lettish" and "2nd Lettish", no later than 10/11/44. On 2/15/45 the division had:

- 42nd Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment "Waldemars Weiss"
(1st Lettish)
- 43rd Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment "Hinrich Schuldt" (2nd Lettish)
- 44th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (6th Lettish)
- 19th Waffen SS Artillery Regiment (2nd Lettish Artillery Regiment)
- 19th SS Fusilier Battaillon
- 19th SS Flak Battaillon (3 btrys)
- 19th SS Panzerjäger Battaillon (2 cos)

- 20th SS Freiwilligen Pioneer Battaillon (45th & 46th Pioneer Cos)
- 20th SS Freiwilligen Signals Battaillon (from 53rd SS Signals Co)

In June 1944 the divisinon was renamed as the 20th Waffen SS

Grenadier Division (1st Estonian) and the word "Freiwilligen" was replaced by "Waffen".

During the retreat through Estonia the division was heavily mauled and the order of 10/6/44 reorganized it with:

- 1/,2/,3/45th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (1st Estonian)
- 1/,2/,3/46th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (2nd Estonian)
- 1/,2/,3/47th Waffen SS Grenadier Regiment (3rd Estonian)
- 1/,2/,3/,4/20th Waffen SS Artillery Regiment (1st Estonian Artillery Regiment)
- 20th Division (Einheiten) Support Troops

The 20th Flak Battalion was not reformed. Upon the German capitulation it passed into Russian captivity north of Prague.

21st Waffen SS Mountain Division "Skanderberg" (1st Albanian): Formed on 5/1/44 in northern Albania from Islamic Albanians. The division had:

- 1/,2/,3/50th SS Mountain Jäger Regiment (1st Albanian)
- 1/,2/,3/51st SS Mountain Jäger Regiment (2nd Albanian)

- 21st SS Freiwilligen Panzerjäger Battalion (3 cos)
- 1/,2/,3/,4/21st SS Mountain Artillery Regiment (from 1st Albanian Artillery Regiment)
- 21st SS Freiwilligen Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
- 21st SS Feldersatz Battalion
- 21st SS Freiwilligen Signals Battalion (3 cos)
- 21st SS Mountain Supply Troop

The division was disbanded at the end of 1944.

22nd SS Freiwilligen Cavalry Division: Formed on 4/29/44 from Hungarian volunteers in the 8th SS Cavalry Division, which stood in Hungary at that time. At the end of 1944 the division was given the title "Maria Theresia". The division had:

- 17th SS Freiwilligen Cavalry Regiment
- 52nd SS Freiwilligen Cavalry Regiment
- 53rd SS Freiwilligen Cavalry Regiment
- 22nd SS Artillery Regiment
- 22nd Division (Einheiten) Support Units, including
  - 22nd SS Panzerjäger Battalion (3 cos)
  - 22nd SS Reconnaissance Battalion (5 cos)
  - 22nd SS Flak Battalion
  - 22nd SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
  - 22nd SS Signals Battalion (2 cos)

The division was destroyed in Budapest in February 1945.

23rd Waffen SS Mountain Division "Kama" (2nd Croatian): Formed on 6/10/44 with:

- 55th Waffen SS Mountain Jäger Regiment (3rd Croatian)
- 56th Waffen SS Mountain Jäger Regiment (4th Croatian)

1/,2/,3/,4/24th Waffen SS Mountain Artillery Regiment
(2nd Croatian)
23rd Division (Einheiten) Troops, including
23rd SS Panzerjäger Battalion (3 cos & 2 cavalry sqns)
23rd SS Reconnaissance Battalion (4 sqns)
23rd SS Flak Battalion
23rd SS Pioneer Battalion (3 cos)
23rd SS Signals Battalion

When the 13th SS Mountain Division "Handschar" was formed, each battalion of the artillery regiment detached the personnel from one battery to assist in the formation of the new division. In addition, 1,000 muslims were detached by the order of 9/24/44 to form the SS Generalkommando IX in Croatia, eventually to also be incorporated into the 13th SS Mountain Division "Handschar". The remaining personnel and equipment were sent to Hungary and organized into an SS Grenadier Division that later became the 31st SS Freiwilligen Grenadier Division. All of the numbers were changed accordingly and the 23rd SS Division disappeared.

23rd SS Freiwilligen Panzer Grenadier Division "Nederland" (1st Dutch): Formed on 2/10/45 from the SS Freiwilligen Panzer Grenadier Brigade "Nederland" (earlier the 4th brigade). The division had:

48th SS Freiwilligen Panzer Regiment "General Seyffard" (1st Dutch)
49th SS Freiwilligen Panzer Regiment "General Seyffard" (2nd Dutch)
23rd Artillery Regiment (formerly the 54th Artillery Regiment)

There is no indication that a panzer reconnaissance battalion, flak battalion, or signals battalion were raised. The 48th Regiment was incorporated into the 15th Waffen SS Grenadier Division. It was then replaced by being reformed from the Panzer Grenadier School. The division was captured by the Russians in the Halbe Pocket.
