

Organization of a French Horse Drawn
75mm M1897 Anti-Tank Battery
(Provisionally Reduced)
4 January 1940

Normal Structure

Officers

3 Officers
12 NCOs
14 Brigadiers (Corporals)
63 Gunners
46 Horse Drivers
5 Drivers

Horses

3 Officer's riding horses
28 Troop riding horses
50 Draft horses

Horsedrawn vehicles

2 2-horse wagons
1 4-horse wagon
20 6-horse wagons

Motor Vehicles:

2 Liaison vehicles
3 Motorcycles
1 Bicycle

Guns

4 75mm M1897 cannon

Cadre to be sent to the Interior, taken from the normal structure and not included in the foregoing

1 Officer
3 NCOs
3 Brigadiers
43 horse drivers (1 not mounted)
91 horses (1 officer's saddle horse, 6 saddle horses for troops, 84 draft horses)

The batteries in the divisions indicated were to send a detachment back to the interior of France to form the cadre of a 47mm battery.

Source

Receiving Infantry Division

27th Artillery Regiment	51st
22nd Artillery Regiment	53rd
22nd Artillery Regiment	53rd (apparently two)
45th Artillery Regiment	55th
26th Artillery Regiment	56th
48th Artillery Regiment	58th
52nd Artillery Regiment	62nd
93rd Artillery Regiment	64th
96th Artillery Regiment	65th
9th Artillery Regiment	66th
57th Artillery Regiment	67th

68th Artillery Regiment
38th Artillery Regiment

70th
71st

Source:

Letter from Grand General Headquarters of the Army, 1st Bureau, Nol 378, 1/F.T., signed by Aide-Major General Hanoteau, SHAT, Carton 27N20.

Copyright GFN 2005