Note: The source document is extremely confusing with a variety of undated change pages and penciled changes. Earlier there was a 1st, 2nd and 3rd Regiments, the 3rd being organized like the 54th (above) and the 1st & 2nd being like the 51st (above). The 3rd was raised at sometime after May. There was also two independent battalions, the 101st, 102nd, 103rd, 104th, 105th, 131st, and 133rd. Each had 3 batteries (six launcher & 2 LMGs ea). The penciled notes are indecipherable, but all of these units vanished before the regiments listed above appear in the document, indicating that they were either renumbered into the above units, or disbanded/destroyed.
