

British Anti-Aircraft Command
1 October 1942

HQs Anti-Aircraft Command: Lieutenant General F.M.Pile

I Anti-Aircraft Corps: Lieutenant General Sir F.Wason
(in southern England)

1st Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General F.L.M.Crossman
(in London)

5th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General R.H.Allen
(in Home Counties)

6th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General F.G.Hyland
(in Essex & Kent)

8th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General D.Paig
(in South Wales & West England)

9th Anti-Aircraft Brigade:
(in London)

13th Anti-Aircraft Brigade:
(in Woolwich)

16th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General
(in Southland-on-Sea)

II Anti-Aircraft Corps: Lieutenant General Sir F.M.Grove-White

2nd Anti-Aircraft Division:
(in the Midlands)

4th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General C.A.E.Cadell
(in Northwest Counties)

10th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General E.A.E. Tremlett
(in Yorkshire)

11th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General S.M.C.Archibald
(in North Wales & Central Midlands)

III Anti-Aircraft Corps: Lieutenant General Sir H.G.Markin

(in Scotland)

3rd Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General J.E.T.Younger
(in Scotland)

7th Anti-Aircraft Division: Major General
(in North East Counties & Northern Ireland)

12th Anti-Aircraft Brigade:
(in Orkney Islands)

58th Anti-Aircraft Brigade:
(in Orkney Islands)