^{2*} Formed during the winter 1942/3. Exact date not known.

⁴ The National Archives Microcopy No. T-78, Roll 405 indicates that the 707th and 708th Self Propelled Infantry Companies (6 150mm sIG each) were attached to the 90th Light Division in mid-1942. The source document does not indicate that they were present, but it has other omissions which suggests that these units may still be present.
